LAND SPIRITS 1: WALKING WITH GAIA

A PROPHETIC SONG FROM GAIA (2011)

The earth will split, the rocks will crack, the waves thunder and roar.

The first child of Mother Earth will be born and the time will come for souls to come back....

Back through the water, the air, the earth. And these will come back to the song from the first child of new growth and innocence.

Walk, walk between the worlds and sing the first song of the Earth.

For only then will we hear the change and see the coming of souls.
